

African Ambassadors celebrate 46th Anniversary of Africa Day in Malaysia

High Commissioner designate of Lesotho to Malaysia, Ms. N. Kokome is seen here with other Heads of Mission during the commemoration of Africa Day.

Lesotho High Commissioner Designate, H.E. Ms. Ntsebe Kokome joined other Heads of Mission in Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia in the commemoration of Africa Day on 25th May, 2009.

Heads of Mission from Africa are united in the desire to promote lasting friendship with the Government and the people of Malaysia. They are bilaterally pursuing a strong bond and cordial relationship with Malaysia and most of the ASEAN countries and look at the relationship as part of the global partnership to improve the lives of their people and peace on earth.

The Dean of diplomatic corps in Malaysia, H.E. Mr. David Ntjoka, High Commissioner of Kenya said "...we pay tribute to the continuing efforts to work together to build an integrated, prosperous and peaceful Africa as envisioned by our leaders in their actions and wisdom to create the Organisation of African Union (OAU) on 25th May, 1963" (currently known as African Union).

African countries are collaborating with Malaysia to promote smart-partnership relationships with the public and private sectors in areas such as Trade, Tourism, Education, Investments, Information and Communication Technology and Culture.
